

Year 1 Medium Term Planning
Theme: Memory Box

Starting Points: Ourselves past and present

AutumnTERM
Date: September 2017

Personal and Social Development, Well Being and Cultural Diversity:

- ☆ What do babies need?
- ☆ Why are birthdays celebrated?
- ☆ Where is your special place

Language, Literacy and Communication:

- ☆ Write a letter to the Museum of Childhood
 - ☆ Write labels for special items
 - ☆ Rhythm and Rhyme - poetry
 - ☆ Diary - 'Jack and the Beanstalk'
- Use JIT to enhance learning

Mathematical Development: ERW scheme of work

- ☆ Recite numbers to 100 – forwards and backwards
 - ☆ Mentally recall one more/one less
 - ☆ Recall addition and subtraction facts. Recall pairs of numbers
 - ☆ Addition and subtraction
 - ☆ Money
 - ☆ Problem solving
- NAC~(numeracy across the curriculum)
- ☆ Sorting baby items into sets/Look at calendars-dates, days of the week, months and years

Religious Education / SEAL:

SEAL – New Beginnings

- ☆ Singing
- R.E-
- ☆ Where is your special place?
 - ☆ Look at different religious settings; Church, Synagogue, Mosque

Physical Development:

- ☆ Play playground games and traditional dances from past generations
- ☆ Creative Movement/Multiskills/Play to Learn

Welsh Language Development:

- ☆ Cwricwlwm Cymreig – Conversational Welsh
- ☆ Dyma fi – Welsh factfile

Creative Development:

- ☆ Make healthy sandwiches for a picnic
- ☆ Explore different materials
- ☆ Decorate a memory box
- ☆ Sing traditional songs and rhymes
- ☆ Self-portraits
- ☆ Glockenspiels - develop rhythm and create music

Knowledge and Understanding of the World:

- ☆ What are the developmental differences between babies and toddlers
- ☆ Make a collection of baby items
- ☆ Explore senses
- ☆ Sound walk - investigate how we hear sounds