Positive Behaviour Policy

Introduction

Johnstown Primary School bases its positive behaviour policy on our School Motto 'Be All You Can Be'. This is integral to the ethos of our school. Our School Motto is intended to help the whole school community to support each other in achieving goals that require respect, motivation, perseverance, kindness and teamwork.

We have three values in Johnstown Primary School that we endeavour to follow in everything we do:

1. Respect Yourself
2. Respect Others
3. Be A Good Learner

In Johnstown Primary School, Restorative Practice is part of everything we do. We are committed to ensuring the highest possible standards of learning and teaching for all our pupils. We believe that for children to be ready to learn, they must firstly feel happy and secure. Restorative Practice is a whole school approach and all of the staff have wholeheartedly made it part of their everyday practice. We do many things each day that are restorative and they have become a part of school life. One of the most important aspects of Restorative Practice is the language we use that positively affects everyone around us. This is what teaches our children social interaction, emotional literacy and understanding the impact of positive and negative behaviour. The way that we speak to each other and manage conflict is so incredibly vital to how we feel and this is why Restorative Practice is at the heart of our school. Restorative questions lay the foundation for, and act as the building blocks for all forms of restorative processes that seek to discover the root cause of challenging behaviour, determine impact, repair harm, and ultimately restore damaged relationships. The Restorative Questions can be found in Appendix 1.

Aims

Positive Behaviour creates an environment in which all members of our school community feel safe and secure. At Johnstown Primary School we:

- ◆ Encourage a calm, purposeful and happy atmosphere within school.
- ◆ Foster positive, caring attitudes towards everyone where achievements at all levels are valued.
- ◆ Continue to use the restorative approach to promote positive behaviour.
- ◆ Continue to reinforce the importance of our School Motto and Values (Appendix 2)
- ◆ Ensure children feel a sense of belonging by continuing to value our School Creed. This is our school and we are family. (Appendix 2)
- ◆ Recognise good behaviour.
- ◆ Reward and praise good behaviour.
- ◆ Encourage increasing independence and self-discipline so that each child learns to accept responsibility for their own behaviour.
- ◆ Promote the values of our school using the 'Value Vines' in conjunction with Building Learning Power.
- ◆ Promote positive behaviour through use of class Zone Boards, house teams and points system, alongside Building Learning Power.
- ◆ Ensure that our children are given every opportunity to succeed

- ◆ Encourage and guide our children to become:
    - ambitious, capable learners, ready to learn throughout their lives
    - enterprising, creative contributors, ready to play a full part in life and work
    - ethical, informed citizens of Wales and the world , ready to be citizens of Wales and the world
    - healthy, confident individuals, ready to lead fulfilling lives as valued members of society.
- (Successful Futures, Prof. Donaldson 2015)

Class Charter

At the start of each school year each class establishes their own class charter, which reflects the school values. The charter exemplifies the class rules, which are discussed and agreed through Pupil Voice. These are linked to the Building Learning Power learning habits. This is agreed upon, put up on display and is referred to as and when necessary throughout the year. The process of developing the class charter can serve to unite the class and it ensures that the children develop a sense of ownership of the classroom and of their learning environment.

Responsibilities

By working together we can have such a positive influence in actively helping and supporting our children. We must all have a responsibility in this.

Staff Responsibilities

- ◆ Be consistent, fair and persistent (Restorative Approach)
- ◆ Help children to develop their full potential (e.g. through Building Learning Power / Value Vines)
- ◆ Secure knowledge of individual pupil strengths and areas for development ,both academically and emotionally
- ◆ Provide challenging, interesting and stimulating activities and lessons
- ◆ Uphold the requirements of the Home/School Agreement
- ◆ Be calm, fair, open minded and reasonable when challenging situations occur (informed by child, other staff members or parents)
- ◆ Celebrate and communicate achievements both in school and outside of school
- ◆ Create a safe and pleasant environment both physically and emotionally
- ◆ Be a good role model, demonstrating high expectations of oneself and others
- ◆ Follow school policy robustly and reliably
- ◆ To use approaches clearly and consistently
- ◆ Seek advice and support from colleagues and other professionals as appropriate (and with consent) if a situation escalates

Parent / Carers Responsibilities

- ◆ Make children aware of appropriate behaviour
- ◆ Be calm, fair, open minded and reasonable when challenging situations occur (informed by own child or staff members)
- ◆ Encourage independence and self –discipline

- ◆ Support and encourage school aims and values, including Building Learning Power.
- ◆ Uphold the requirements of the Home/School Agreement
- ◆ Celebrate and communicate achievements both in school and outside of school
- ◆ Communicate honestly and openly with class teacher if worried or concerned about changes in a child's behaviour
- ◆ Work in collaboration with school and other professionals as appropriate to agree next steps in order to move forward with challenging behaviour

Pupil Responsibilities

- ◆ To try their best to follow our School Values and Class Charter, linked to Building Learning Power.
- ◆ Be responsible and make active contributions to their own learning as appropriate to their age and stage of development
- ◆ Uphold the requirements of the Home/School Agreement
- ◆ Be proud of their achievements
- ◆ Treat others, their belongings and the environment with respect
- ◆ Show consideration for others
- ◆ Try to be calm, fair and honest when challenging situations occur
- ◆ To consider the effects of their actions on others (Restorative Practice)

Useful Strategies for the Promotion of Good Behaviour

Public praise and private criticism

Public acknowledgement of good behaviour can be very powerful in a positive way. Usually, criticism should be as private as possible; lowering a child's self-esteem is likely to increase misbehaviour, if not now, later. Avoid standing on one side of the classroom and telling someone off on the other side. The audience provided by the rest of the class can prove rewarding for the child as well as making the rest of the class feel 'told off' too. Some children find direct praise hard to handle so praise should be as descriptive and specific as possible and you should be sensitive to the impact. For some children public praise can be seen as a negative experience and therefore individual need must be considered before employing positive behaviour techniques. Perhaps allow the child to hear you telling someone else how well he or she has done. Praise can also be non-verbal: a smile, a thumbs-up or a sticker. Expand your vocabulary for praise.

Three positives before a negative

This can apply to individuals as well as to classes. Before criticising a child's work or behaviour, aim to have made three positive contacts with them beforehand. They will usually be more receptive to what you have to say. Within the class, aim to appreciate three children before criticising one. The lesson children will learn is that they are more likely to get attention when they behave or work well than when their behaviour is negative.

Acknowledge feelings

Children often misbehave because they feel upset. One reason for this can be to attract adult attention to their bad feelings in the hope that they will get some help with them. Acknowledging the child's feelings can pre-empt them resorting to other ways to get your attention.

Give them a choice

Give children a choice as often as possible. This can be as simple as deciding which piece of work they want to do first. Being given choices increases a child's sense of independence, which in turn contributes to the development of their self-esteem.

Being consistent

Children have a need for the world to be as reliable as possible. When staff act consistently and reliably, they make the child feel safer and therefore less anxious. This in turn will make it less likely that events will trigger off bad behaviour. The language used by all staff, in-line with Restorative Practice, also must be as consistent as possible. The phrases 'I need / we need / ___needs you...' can help to diffuse a potentially difficult situation as the use of this less confrontational language creates more of a partnership. For pupils with low self-esteem, the addition of 'yet' to the end of self-critical sentences such as 'I can't do this!' creates a growth mind-set, instilling in pupils that everything is possible with some effort. Empathising with pupils when they are verbally stating their unease / anger, e.g. Pupil – 'I hate this...' Adult 'I know / I understand that is how you are feeling' can de-escalate situations as this non-confrontational approach ensures that arguments cannot take place.

Model desired behaviour

It is important for adults within the school to model the kinds of behaviour that they expect from children in terms of respect, concern, fairness, how to apologise, how to resolve difficulties fairly and amicably. Dealing with difficult behaviour can trigger feelings of anger, irritation, disappointment or even despair. It is better to avoid communicating these feelings. Responses should be low key and matter of fact.

Scan the classroom

Teachers who seem to know what is going on even before it has started and seem to have eyes in the back of their head enable children to feel safe. Put yourself in a position within class or outside where you can see what is going on and scan for children who are off-task. Re-direct children before behaviour has become disruptive. Listen for changes in patterns of conversation, which might indicate off-task behaviour. Make your presence felt by a look or by repositioning yourself.

Listen to children

Listen to children and make them feel significant. It is important to make children feel aware that you recognise their feelings ... "You seem cross, did something happen?" Always follow up concerns raised and complaints made, even if you need to say that you will deal with it later. Children need to feel able to share things with us and for issues not to be driven 'underground'.

Maintain frequent contact

Aim to make fairly frequent task-centred contact with all children. This will communicate that attention is predominately given for behaving well and meeting the needs of the situation appropriately. For children who have difficulty maintaining concentration on their work, ensure you make very frequent contact with them. Notice what they have already achieved, ask what they have to do next and remind them that you will be back to check on them. This concentrates on communication about the task and gives the child teacher contact.

Pre-empt disruptive behaviour

If a child is off-task, the importance tactic is to return their attention to the task before they actually become disruptive.

Be aware of yourself

When dealing with disruptive incidents, consider the following:

- ◆ Your position in class
- ◆ Your proximity to disruptive children
- ◆ Your facial expression
- ◆ Your tone of voice
- ◆ Your posture
- ◆ Your choice of words
- ◆ The use of eye contact
- ◆ Your feelings – stay calm

Do they all communicate your confidence and authority? Do they tend to reduce the temperature or raise it? Do they diffuse the situation or ignite it?

Catch them being good

This can be hard with some children but it is usually more important for them than for many others. Noticing and acknowledging anything that is in the direction the adult wants the child to take will encourage and reinforce that movement.

Intervention

In order to enable the child's learning it may be necessary to provide them with 'time away' in a quiet environment away from the classroom. This may be a time for them to reflect independently or they may need 'talk time' with an adult to 'be heard' e.g. the class teaching assistant.

PSE/D and SEAL

The bedrock of Johnstown School is the development of personal and social skills. PSE/D and SEAL lessons are an integral part of learning and teaching in Johnstown School. We believe that developing social and emotional aspects of learning in our children encompasses the foundation for success in all aspects of school life. The school day includes daily circle times, and 'checking in and out'. This ensures our children start and end their day on a positive and happy note. The strategies and life skills we provide our children with in PSE/D lessons will help our children to grow within a safe and secure environment, and to become positive, responsible and happy members of our school and the wider community.

Rewards and Consequences

Rewards

Our emphasis is on rewards to reinforce and exemplify good behaviour skills, rather than on the negative. We encourage all our pupils to practice good behaviour by maintaining high expectations of all pupils. A range of positive strategies are used to actively encourage and reward both academic and non-academic achievements.

Rewards have been carefully chosen and agreed by staff and through pupil voice. We recognise the importance of consistency, continuity and progression in rewarding good behaviour. The suggested rewards for each year group are outlined below. These are subject to change dependent on pupil voice and staff evaluation of impact.

Consequences

At Johnstown Primary School we are committed to using a positive approach to developing appropriate behaviour skills. However, we recognise that consequences are at times necessary to promote and establish effective personal and social skills.

Staff at Johnstown Primary School are committed to managing behaviour and developing positive attitudes. We understand this is vital as it helps learners cope and succeed in different ways. The following guidance presents consequences in a sequential order – where an individual behaviour results in an individual consequence.

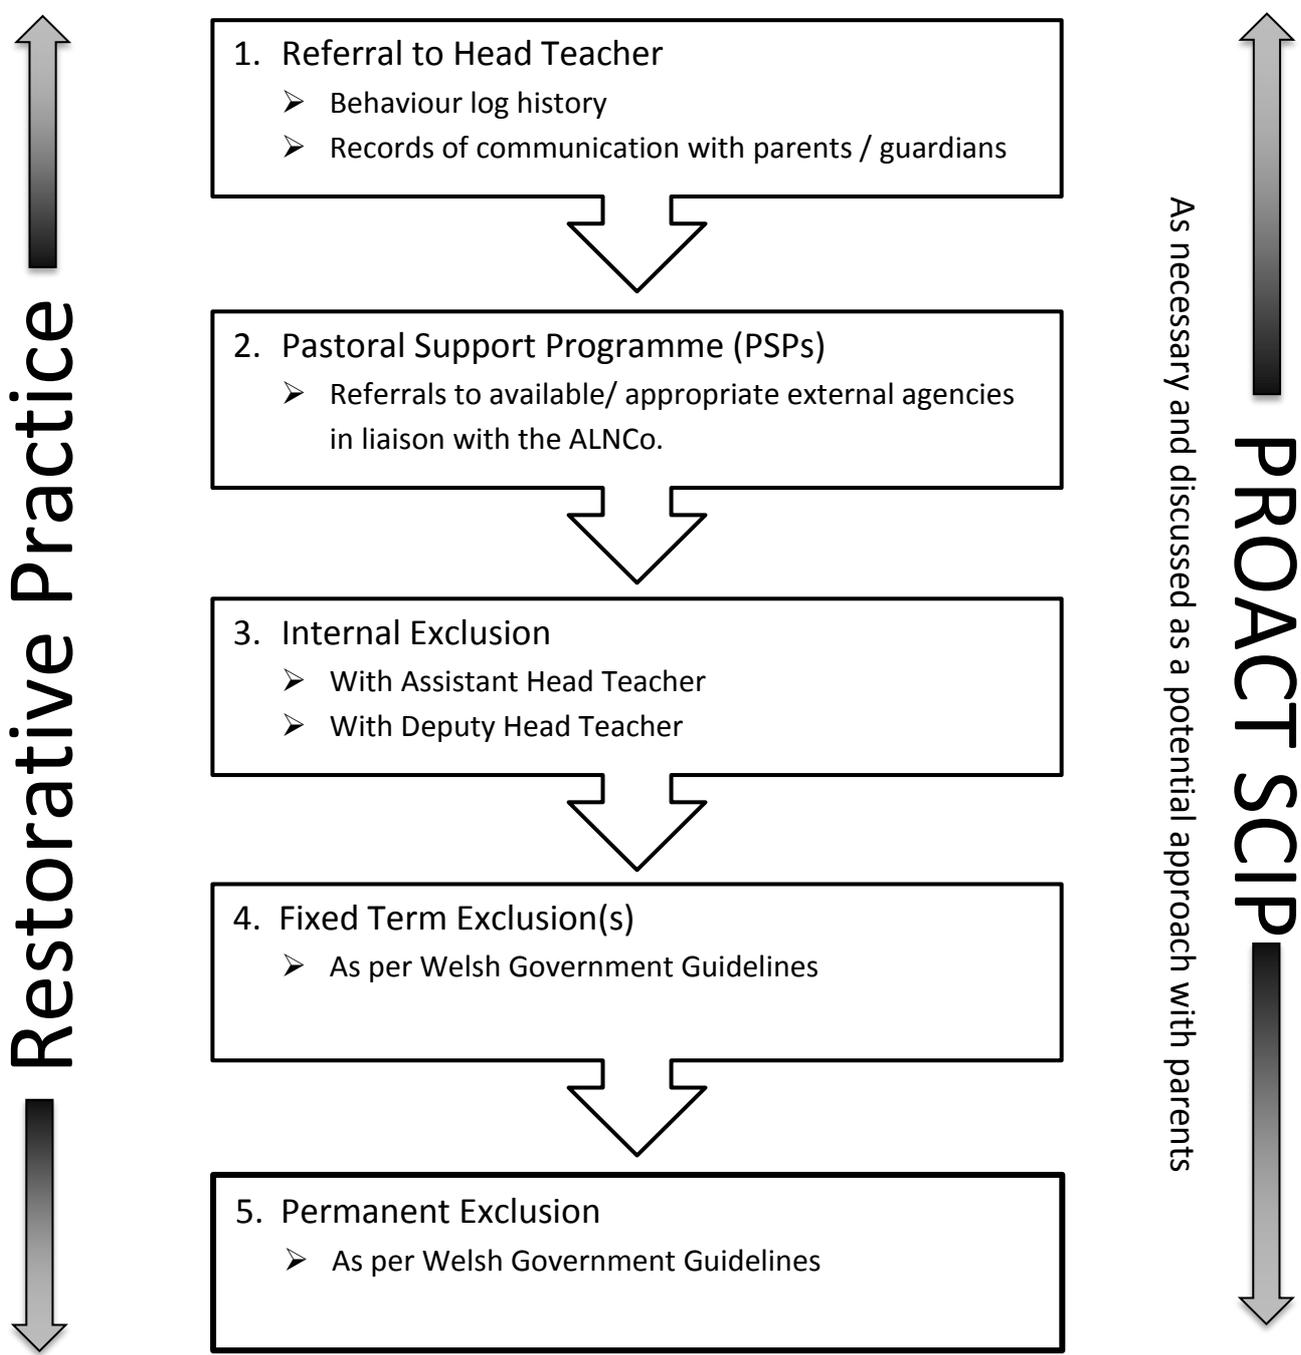

Behaviours	Consequences
A child displaying out of character behaviours	A private quiet chat/discussion to ascertain if there are any reasons for the unexpected behaviours – discuss ways forward, eg, How can we help you with this?

In situations where an incident / incidents are assessed as ‘persistent High level Behaviours’ or extreme circumstances where a significant risk of harm may result, then the exclusion policy will be followed. Our exclusion policy is adopted from the Welsh Government guidance document (Pages 8-11) and is outlined as follows:

This process must always be followed when dealing with incidents of ‘bullying, discrimination and aggressive incidents.

(Appendix ____, P.21 Exclusion from Schools 081/2012)

Restorative Questions Script

Relational Questions 1 – Challenging Those Causing Harm

- ◆ What happened?
- ◆ What were you thinking of at the time?
- ◆ What have your thoughts been since?
- ◆ Who has been affected by what you did?
- ◆ In what way have they been affected?

→ ◆ What do you think needs to happen next?

This questions needs to be asked after the five questions have been asked to those being supported

Relational Questions 2 – Supporting Those Being Harmed

- ◆ What happened?
- ◆ What were your thoughts at the time?
- ◆ What have your thoughts been since?
- ◆ How has this affected you and others?
- ◆ What has been the hardest thing for you?

← ◆ What do you think needs to happen next?

This question needs to be the final question asked after the one causing harm has been asked what they think needs to happen next.
